CONSTITUTION.

---

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The corporate name of this organization shall be The Camera Club.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the Club shall be the cultivation and advancement of the science and art of Photography.

ARTICLE III.

SEAL.

The Club shall have and use a common seal in such form and with such devices thereon as shall be fixed by the Trustees.

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—Its membership shall consist of persons over eighteen years of age interested in Photography.

SEC. 2.—There shall be five classes of members: Active, Life, Non-Resident, Corresponding and Honorary.

470509

1. Active members shall have all the privileges of the Club.

2. Life members shall have all the privileges of the Club and shall be exempt from the payment of annual dues.

3. Non-resident members shall be those who actually live more than thirty miles from the New York City Hall. Non-resident members shall have all the privileges of the Club, but shall not be entitled to vote nor be eligible for office; but nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the status of the non-resident members elected prior to March 14th, 1899.

4. Corresponding members shall be those who, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, are corresponding members of The Camera Club. No corresponding members shall be elected after the adoption of this Constitution.

5. Honorary members shall be those who have rendered distinguished services to Photography or to the Club. They shall have all the privileges of the Club, but shall not be entitled to vote nor be eligible for office. They shall pay no entrance fee nor dues.

SEC. 3.—The Active membership shall be limited to two hundred and fifty; and the Life membership to thirty.

SEC. 4.—Termination of membership from any cause whatsoever shall operate as a release of all right and title to, or interest in, the property and assets of the Club.

SEC. 5.—Officers of the Army and Navy are eligible as Non-resident members.

SEC. 6.—Members shall be elected by the Trustees, subject to the provisions of this Constitution and of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Club shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the members of the Club, for the term of one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified. Their powers and duties shall be such as are prescribed by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI.

TRUSTEES.

SEC. 1.—The Club shall have a board of ten Trustees, consisting of the Officers and six other Active or Life members, who shall have the control and management of the property, funds and affairs of the Club pursuant to law, and in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws.

SEC. 2.—The officers shall be elected annually, and the six Trustees shall be first elected at the annual meeting in April, 1899, and shall be divided into three classes of two each, to serve for one, two and three years respectively from that date, thereafter two Trustees shall be elected annually for a term of three years.

ARTICLE VII.

AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be amended at any meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of all the members present and entitled to vote, provided, that notice of the proposed amendment shall have been given in writing, at a meeting of the Club held at least thirty days previous, and due notice shall have been sent to every member at least ten days prior to the meeting at which the amendments are to be considered.

BY-LAWS.

---

ARTICLE I.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

President.

SECTION 1.—The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Trustees. He shall authorize the call for all meetings of the Club and of the Trustees; shall be ex-officio a member of all standing committees except the Committee on Admission, and shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer.

The President shall, with the Secretary, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Club.

Vice-President.

SEC. 2.—The Vice-President of the Club shall have the powers and perform the duties of the President in his absence.

Secretary.

SEC. 3.—The Secretary of the Club shall notify each Trustee of every meeting of the Board of Trustees, and each member of the Club of every meeting of the Club; issue all other authorized notices to members; make and keep a true record of all meetings of the Trustees and Club; have custody of its Constitution, By-Laws, Bulletin Boards and Corporate Seal, and conduct its correspondence.

Treasurer.

SEC. 4.—The Treasurer shall collect and have the custody of all moneys due to the Club, and disburse the same under the direction of the Trustees; and keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements, and shall make report thereof at each regular meeting of the Trustees; shall promptly notify all members in arrears and shall report the names of such members, if any, to the Trustees at each meeting, and at the expiration of his term of office shall submit a final account, with vouchers, which shall be audited by the Auditing Committee.

ARTICLE II.

POWERS OF TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1.—The Trustees shall have the power to suspend or expel any member who shall fail to pay his dues within thirty days after notice has been sent to him by the Treasurer that his dues are in arrears.

SEC. 2.—The Trustees shall appoint annually a House Committee, an Auditing Committee, a Committee on Lantern Slides, a Committee on Prints, a Committee on Meetings, a Committee on Scientific Research, and a Librarian, from their own members, or from the members of the Club at large, but no standing committees shall exceed five members. The Trustees may also, from time to time, appoint such other committees as they shall deem expedient.

SEC. 3.—The Trustees shall have power, by a majority vote, to suspend or expel any member of the Club, after hearing, for conduct likely, in the opinion of the Trustees, to be prejudicial to the welfare, interest, or character of the Club, after two weeks previous notice, in writing, to the member, of the time and place of hearing, accompanied by a copy of the charges preferred.

SEC. 4.—The Trustees shall prepare or cause to be prepared, for presentation at the annual meeting, a detailed statement of the financial condition of the Club, showing its receipts and expenditures for the current year, the number of members, and other matters of general interest to the Club.

SEC. 5.—A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 6.—Any Trustee who shall absent himself from three consecutive regular meetings of the Trustees provided for in these By-Laws, or who shall leave one of its meetings at which there shall be a quorum, without permission or excuse, shall there-upon cease to be a Trustee.

SEC. 7.—The Trustees shall have the power to fill any vacancy which may occur in their number, or in the Committee on admission, until the next annual election.

SEC. 8.—The Trustees shall also have power:

1. To make rules for the use of the rooms and property of the Club.

2. To prescribe rules for the admission of strangers or guests to the privileges of the Club.

3. To make, alter and amend rules for their own government, and shall decide all questions not governed or determined by the Constitution or By-Laws.

4. They shall supervise and approve all publications of proceedings at meetings of the Club and of the Trustees.

SEC. 9.—The Trustees shall hold monthly meetings on the last Monday of each month, except during the months of July and August.

SEC. 10.—All resignations of Trustees shall be made to the Trustees.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION I.—The Club shall have the power to remove from office any or all of the Trustees, by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a special meeting of the Club called for that purpose.

ARTICLE IV.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION I.—Candidates for membership must be proposed and seconded by two members, who shall state, in writing, to the Secretary, the name, occupation, place of residence and qualifications for membership of the person proposed. The Secretary shall thereupon refer such proposition to the Committee on Admission.

SEC. 2.—The Committee on Admission shall make careful investigation with respect to every candidate so proposed, and shall cause his or her name, together with those of the proposer and seconder, to be posted on the bulletin board of the Club at least ten days before being balloted for by the Trustees. Members shall be admitted to the Club by ballot of the Trustees, after a favorable report to them by the Committee on Admission, and no candidate for membership shall be elected unless he or she shall receive the affirmative ballots of three fourths of the Trustees present. Any Trustee may at the same meeting move a reconsideration of a ballot either of admission or exclusion, but no rejected candidate shall be eligible for six months after an adjournment.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1.—There shall be an annual meeting of the Club at the Club rooms on the second Tuesday of April in each year, at 8 P. M., for the purpose of electing Trustees, Officers and a Committee on Admission, which shall consist of three members, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting.

SEC. 2.—At the annual meeting there shall be elected by ballot from the Active or Life members the Officers and Trustees provided for by the Constitution, and a Committee on Admission.

SEC. 3.—The members of the Committee on Admission shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected.

SEC. 4.—At all elections the presiding officer shall appoint two inspectors of election, who shall receive and canvass the printed or written ballots, and certify the result to the Secretary, who shall make known the same to the Club; a majority of votes cast shall elect in each case.

SEC. 5.—Stated meetings of the Club shall be held at the Club Rooms on the second Tuesday of every month, at 8 P. M., except during the months of July and August.

SEC. 6.—1. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the President, and shall be called on the written request of ten members, setting forth the purpose thereof.

2. At special meetings no business other than that specified in the call shall be considered except by unanimous consent. At least five days' notice, in writing, shall be given to the members of all special meetings of the Club.

SEC. 7.—In the absence of the President and Vice-President from any of the meetings of the Club, a Chairman shall be chosen by vote of the members present.

SEC. 8.—Twenty-one members entitled, to vote, present at any meeting of the Club shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 9.—No member shall furnish for publication without the approval of the Trustees any report of the proceedings at meetings of the Club or Trustees.

ARTICLE VI.

ENTRANCE FEE.

SECTION 1.—The Entrance Fee for Active members shall be fifteen dollars($15), until the list of active members shall have reached the number of two hundred and fifty, after which the entrance fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 2 —Every person elected to membership shall, as a condition thereof, within thirty days after notice, in writing, has been sent to him or her by the Secretary, pay to the Treasurer the amount of the entrance fee, together with the dues, as provided for in Article VII; otherwise such election shall be null and void.

ARTICLE VII.

ANNUAL DUES.

SECTION 1.—The annual dues for Active members shall be twenty dollars ($20), payable in advance in two equal instalments on April and October first.

The dues for Non-Resident and Corresponding members shall be ten dollars ($10) payable annually in advance on April first.

Members who may be admitted to the Club after May first or November first shall pay pro rata of the full amount of annual dues from the time they are elected.

SEC. 2.—Locker rents shall be paid by active members semi-annually in advance from April and October first, other classes annually in advance from April first.

SEC. 3.—When the dues, or any other indebtedness of any member shall remain unpaid for the space of two months, the Treasurer shall cause such member to be notified that, unless the same be paid within thirty days thereafter, the membership shall cease; and in case such dues shall not be paid pursuant to such notice the person so in arrears shall thereupon cease to be a member, and the name dropped from the roll and he be so notified; unless for reasons satisfactory to the Trustees, the default shall be excused. Members intending to be absent from the United States for six months, or more, on giving notice, in writing, of such intention to the Treasurer, thenceforth during such absence may be transferred to the Non-Resident list until their return.

ARTICLE VIII.

LIFE AND HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—Life membership may be conferred by the Trustees on any member who shall make application for transfer to life membership, upon the payment by such member, of two hundred dollars ($200).

SEC. 2.—Honorary membership may be conferred by the Trustees, by unanimous vote at any regular meeting, provided the proposal has been made at a previous regular meeting of the Trustees.

ARTICLE IX.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

SECTION 1.—At the regular monthly meeting in February of each year the Club shall appoint a Nominating Committee of five members, no one of whom shall be a Trustee, and the names of the members of such Nominating Committee shall be posted on the Club Bulletin not later than one week after their appointment.

SEC. 2.—It shall be the duty of such, Nominating Committee to nominate a ticket for Trustees, Officers of the Club and Committee on Admission, to be voted upon at the ensuing annual meeting, under the provisions of the Constitution, and said Nominating Committee shall post such ticket upon the Club Bulletin not less than fifteen days previous to the date of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE X.

NOMINATIONS.

Except as provided for in Article IX, no member shall be eligible for election as a Trustee, Officer of the Club, or member of the Committee on Admission, unless his name shall have been posted on the Club Bulletin, for at least seven days before the election shall take place, and be endorsed in writing by at least five members of the Club.

ARTICLE XI.

NOTICES.

All notices shall be sent to such address as shall be left with the Secretary. If no address is so given, such notice shall be sufficient if addressed to the member at his last known place of residence.

ARTICLE XII.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEES.

House Committee.

SECTION 1.—The House Committee shall make rules from time to time, to be approved by the Trustees, relative to the use of the Club Rooms and the conduct of members or visitors therein. It shall be limited in its expenditures to such sums as shall be prescribed by the Trustees.

SEC. 2.—It shall be the duty of the House Committee to inquire into all infractions or violations of the rules or regulations of the Club by any of the members, and report the same to the Trustees, with such recommendation in each case as it shall deem advisable.

SEC. 3.—They shall post a list of the Officers, Trustees and members of the House Committee in the rooms of the Club, and shall permit no games of chance for stakes in the Club Rooms.

SEC. 4.—All complaints and suggestions in regard to the administration of the Club Rooms shall be made in writing to the House Committee.

Auditing Committee.

SEC. 5.—The Auditing Committee shall audit all bills or claims against the Club, and the books and accounts of the Treasurer.

Committee on Lantern Slides.

SEC. 6.—The Committee on Lantern Slides shall have charge of the lantern slides owned by, or contributed to the Club for exhibition; and of the lanterns of the Club and the apparatus connected therewith. It shall have the management of all lantern slide exhibitions given by the Club. It may lend to members of the Club lantern slides, under such regulations as the committee may prescribe. It shall be the duty of the committee to keep all slides belonging to the Club at the rooms of the Club, excepting when they are loaned for exhibition.

Committee on Meetings.

SEC. 7.—The committee on Meetings shall procure papers on photographic subjects, literature or travel, to be read, processes to be demonstrated, and new apparatus to be exhibited, at meetings of the Club.

Committee on Prints.

SEC. 8.—The Committee on Prints shall have charge of all exhibitions of prints, and shall have full charge of the hanging and arrangement of all pictures and decorations upon the walls of the Club Rooms.

Committee on Scientific Research.

SEC. 9.—The Committee on Scientific Research shall test new apparatus, new chemicals and lenses, co-operate with the House Committee in the care of the apparatus of the Club and generally interest itself in the science of Photography, and shall report on its work to the Club from time to time.

ARTICLE XIII.

LIBRARIAN.

The Librarian shall have supervision of the Club Library, and make and enforce necessary rules for the proper management and circulation of books and periodicals among the members.

ARTICLE XIV.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

SECTION 1.—At the Annual Meetings the order of business shall be:

Roll Call of Members.
Reports of Officers.
Reports of Committees.
Election of Trustees, Officers and Committee on Admission.
Miscellaneous Business.
Adjournment.

SEC. 2.—At regular meetings of the Club and of the Trustees the order of business shall be:

Roll Call.
Reading of Minutes.
Reports of Officers.
Reports of Committees.
Unfinished business.
General business.
Adjournment.

ARTICLE XV.

RULES.

The rules and orders of Cushing's Manual shall govern the meetings of the Club and of the Trustees, so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with the Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE XVI.

These By-Laws may be amended at any meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of all the members present and entitled to vote, provided, that notice of the proposed amendments shall have been given, in writing, at a meeting of the Club held at least thirty days previous, and due notice shall have been sent to every member at least ten days prior to the meeting at which the amendments are to be considered.
